

Final Galilean Campaign

Lesson aim: To become familiar with Jesus' teaching on discipleship—how disciples are made and the qualities they must possess

A shortage of workers--Mt. 9:35-38; Lk. 6:6

1. What lessons can be learned about evangelism from Jesus' remarks?

The twelve are commissioned to preach--Mt. 10:1-11:1; Mk. 6:7-13; Lk. 9:1-6

(Answer these questions about the limited commission)

1. In what sense is it limited?

2. What message were the disciples to announce?

3. How would they confirm that this message was from God?

4. How would the disciples be supported?

5. What observations and warnings did Jesus give them with reference to their reception by others?

6. What incentives did Jesus give to encourage his disciples to be courageous in preaching the truth?

7. What did Jesus mean "I came not to bring peace, but a sword"?

8. What are the requirements of being a disciple of Jesus?

9. What is the point of Jesus' remarks in v. 40-42?

The twelve return with news of their labors--Mk. 6:30; Lk. 9:10

Discussion question:

To what extent are the principles of Matthew applicable to those who preach the gospel today?
